

Sentient Pilot – Structure – Act Four

Page count: 6 -12 pages

Guide

- The protagonist and nemesis will enact their plans of action with very clear objectives, (in conflict)
- An observer character discovers the invaders may already be here but says nothing
- Advance C and D stories
- Advance the mythology by focusing the Sentient on children
- The protagonist and the nemesis will realize their presumptions were all wrong, all is lost
- What shall we do now?

Sentient - Australia

- Dowd, Teicher, Amiri and Ramos
 - Night - They sail the cat across the harbour to Dowd's base. The floating bodies begin to glow then sink out of sight
 - They discuss the circling jetliners. Dowd explains how you could hide an army within, the guns are here, the infrastructure and hardware is waiting, all they have to do is turn up
 - They arrive at Dowd's base. No one is home
 - The communication equipment is dead but there is plenty of kit to take. They procure supplies

- There is no way to contact command. Teicher explains how the storm has disrupted communication equipment but a valve radio set would still work. Dowd tells them he knows where they can get hold of a ham radio
- Ramos observes the jet liners are coming in to land
- They rush out to observe the jets, one by one crash into the city, setting it on fire

- Heidi and Sammy
 - Heidi tells Sammy, 'We're going to find your daddy'
 - Heidi, asks her about Sammy's family. Sammy doesn't speak so Heidi talks about herself
 - Sammy enters an open jewellery store. Heidi watches her try on necklaces cautioning her not to take anything because, 'That would be bad'

- Tobias Friesner – Son of Commodore Friesner
 - Tobias wakes up alone in a cancer ward for children. The room begins to vibrate. A blue glow fills the hall outside. Something is approaching. A hum like a Tibetan singing bowl fills the ward. Tobias drags himself upright to see. He's scared. A door outside opens. He hears the Base Security Guard's voices. The light and the humming abruptly stops

- Friesner, the Admiral, Kaiden and the Base Security Guards
 - Friesner establishes Kaiden is a foreign contractor on a 457 visa
 - Kaiden reveals they have lost all contact with command and the outside world, 'We're blind'
 - Friesner makes it clear to Kaiden, Sydney has been hit by a weapon of mass destruction, this is a terror attack and you will get that equipment working
 - The guards go to the Sydney Children's hospital to pick-up Friesner's son. Babic and Eid whinge all the way. Babic tells how he is going to beat Dowd to a pulp when he sees him next. Aguilera berates them as a selection of soft-cocks. They discover Sydney is empty
 - The guards arrive at the hospital thinking they are looking for a Doctor only to discover Tobias Friesner is a 14 year-old, laid-up in a cancer ward. He doesn't look like he can walk but Tobias is a very resilient young man, ready to take it on. Tobias says nothing of the blue light and the hum

- Kaiden joins Frieser on the roof of the bunker. Frieser is watching the planes lining up to land. He is joined by Kaiden who is about to report no joy re the communication equipment when one of the planes flames out and crashes into the city
- Heston , Sabban and Rabi
 - Rabi is suspicious of Sabban. The feeling goes both ways
 - Heston, still blind, tells them he can hear the planes coming into land. They need to pick up the pace. Then the planes start to flame out and crash into the city
- All
 - The jetliners come in to land
 - Everyone is watching with different expectations
 - One by one, they fall from the sky setting Sydney on fire

Must-see content

- The planes crash setting the abandoned city on fire