Sentient USA – 3rd Draft review – Part 2 (Formula A story)

Based on our Skype meeting today...

Formula

Kick-in with your A-story: Your protagonist pursues their external goal based on their interpretation of the Day One event. (Reference – Formula guide).

JJ has no interpretation of the day one event. Nor does he define a course of action except to see his girl. Even that does not present as a driving force in JJ.

Solution

Introduce a dream scene whilst JJ is unconscious in the cave.

Show:

- Lindsay, a dream version of, in danger
- Hear a growing / pulsating hum
- Perhaps show Lindsay subject to a tidal wave of water from behind
- Perhaps Lindsay is shown in alien form

Then, wake JJ up in the cave, calling her name. In the background his phone is glowing and humming.

Other

During the drive in or at the foot of the pole, check the approaching storm. One is predicted. Dismiss it as a day away.

No meteors. Feature the storm as if it were a vertically descending cloud/smoke that then swells and expands over Phily and comes towards them. Send the shockwave through the wires before it arrives.
