Reference

Title – Sentient

Life may be abundant in the universe but the chance of Sentient life, capable of realizing space travel, mastering DNA and creating life, is near impossible.

Humanity is perhaps it.

Even if we are not, we are most likely a special project, but humanity's desire to build a new tower of Babel has angered the creator.

Perhaps it feels there's only room for one God in this universe, one truly Sentient lifeform.

Tagline - God has a new plan for earth. Humanity's not part of it.

Theme - Humanity is flawed and cannot be redeemed and so should be abandoned and replaced with something better.

Message - A vain and vengeful God will only create creatures filled with that same vanity and rage. The cycle is without end.
